KAISER'S APPEAL TO HIS PEOPLE

Urges Them to Stand Firm and Unwavering in Crisis

"SUFFER IN SILENCE"

Emperor Says Despondency is Treason, While Complaint or Discouragement is a Crime

London, July 28.—A letter from Kaiser Wilhelm passionately appealing to the German people to stand firm and unwaivering, no matter how the tide of battle flows, has been printed in all the German papers. The letter was circulated by the semi-official Wolff News Agency.

Dated from the front in the west, the letter says in part:

"The battle is raging huge beyond all previous imagination. Rejuvenated, perfectly equipped with all they want, Russia's armies again have broken against our bulwarks in the east. This has eased the situation for Italy. France has experienced regeneration in this war of which she hardly believed herself capable. She has dragged her dilatory English ally into joining the offensive on the Somme, and whatever inward worth the British army has it now has an abundance of artillery.

"The iron hurricane rages against our brave German men at the Somme. Negroes and white men come upon us in wave after wave, in ever fresh storms, wild and sullen. Everything is at stake. The ice-cold haberdashers on the Thames yearn for our holiest things. The health and life of our women and our children is menaced. Even neutrals must bear hunger. Only the depths of the ocean now are open to us. Should we be victorious there is threatening a 'war after the war' when the best energies and power of the nation, now expressed by its joy in arms, shall be taxed to the utmost to meet raw force, hatred, and calumny.

"What, German people, is your duty in this hour? The army want no exhortations. It has fought superhumanly. It will fight until final victory. But the people at home—this is their duty: To suffer in silence, to bear their renunciations with dignity.

"Those at home are not all doing these things. Not all are alive to the tremendous seriousness of the times. Are our people at home the same people as at the beginning of the war? The writer fears not. Let us remember that this is no ordinary rupture of ordinary life. It is the hour of destiny for our Fatherland, the hour which will influence us for centuries. We must unite in opposition to the entire world. We must all co-operate in the struggle.

"Any man or woman who hangs his or her head or suffers despondency to enter his soul is guilty now of treason. Every word of complaint or discouragement is a crime against our fathers, our sons and our brothers. Let us show the greatness of the German nation. Do not jeopardize everything by petty squabbling. It is no time for internecine strife. But it is time for holding together. In this hour the best blood of the nation, mature men and budding youths are presenting their breasts to the iron hail of the English, Russian and African hordes. Everything is at stake."

This is in strange contradiction to repeated assertions from German sources that the British offensive has reached its highwater mark. It is taken here to show conclusively that Germany is thoroughly alarmed.

Joseph McLoughlin, 24, of Philadelphia, is dying at Scranton, Pa., with three bullets in his abdomen while the police are holding Peter Marchiano, 23, of Lewistown, Pa., who did the shooting. McLoughlin and two other men found Marchiano asleep on the street yesterday and told him to go home. The man whipped out a revolver and fired three bullets into McLoughlin.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Nearly $700,000,000 for national defense in the fiscal year 1917 is the aggregate of proposed appropriations reached in the Senate yesterday with the passage of the Army Appropriation bill carrying in round numbers $314,000,000.

It was stated in an official quarter in London yesterday that a public execution for Sir Roger Casement was highly improbable. Unless there are special instructions from the government, arrangement will be made to hold the execution privately at Pentonville Prison.

Robert Ormes, a relief officer at the Louisville, Ky., Industrial School of Reform, is dead at the City Hospital of wounds received late Wednesday when he was attacked by Montie Guess, 15 years of age, and beaten on the head with a heavy iron ball.

Motor vehicles averaged one registration for every 44 persons in the United States in the last year, according to the office of public roads, Department of Agriculture. The total number registered in the United States last year was 2,445,664, for which registration and license fees aggregated $18,245,713.

A slow fuse mill, known as a meal barrel, at the Hagley plant of the Dupont Powder Company at Wilmington, Del., exploded yesterday afternoon, and the officials believe that it was struck by a lightning bolt. No one was injured, but the building was destroyed with all its machinery.

Warrants for the arrest of Edward E. Hatch, vice president of the Mutual Trust Company, of Orange, N. J., closed Monday by the State Banking Commission, and for Thomas S. Byrnes, secretary and treasurer of the institution, were issued yesterday at Newark, N. J. They are charged with conspiracy to defraud the bank out of $306,000.

Thirty trains were required to carry Yuan Shih-kai's family and their possessions from Peking to the Yuan shih-kai home at Changtehfu. The late president it was known, had sixteen wives, and it has been reported by one paper that in addition to his first wife, who is the legal wife under the Chinese laws, he had 26 others.

Senator Reed's amendment, voted into the Army Appropriation Bill Wednesday to permit National Guardsmen in the federal service to vote at their camps in the coming presidential election was stricken out yesterday on a point of order. When Senator Jones sought to add a provision exempting the guardsmen from certain state election law restrictions, Senator Williams made a point of order against the whole amendment and was sustained by the Vice President. An appeal from the ruling was voted down.

Ghastly evidence that hundreds of ferocious sharks had devoured the entire crew of the three-masted schooner Carrie Strong have been found by officers of the revenue cutter Tallapoosa. So numerous are the hungry sea wolves that they even attacked the yawl sent out by the cutter to the wreck of the Carrie Strong, and the officers feared they would puncture the bottom of their craft. The Carrie Strong was wrecked off Dry Tortugas July 5 and the revenue cutter had approached it for the purpose of dynamiting the hulk.

German submarines have started a relentless war against timber-laden vessels in the North Sea. Four ships, all Norwegian, were reported to have been sunk yesterday. The captain and 12 men of one of the vessels Kantgern were landed at Shields. The German submarine commander, after examining the vessel's papers, is quoted by members of the crew as saying: "Well, I suppose I must do it. I am very sorry but it is my duty. I am sick and tired of the whole business." The ship was then saturated with paraffin and set on fire.

The New York Herald publishes the following: Coming from semi-official sources that cannot be ignored and in a manner that is well worthy of credence the Herald today received word that the German merchant supersubmarine Bremen, anxiously expected in this port by all Teutonic sympathizers, has been captured by British patrolling squadrons and is at the present time tied up in the Northwest Arm, an estuary in the harbor of Halifax, N.S. The information comes in the form of a letter written by the secretary of a high Canadian official to his cousin, a business man of this city.

UNITED STATES SWELTERING

Present Heat and Humidity Attributed to a Bermuda High

26 DEATHS IN CHICAGO

Declared By the Weather Forecaster to be the Worst Heat Wave in Fifteen Years

Washington, July 28—The worst heat wave that has enveloped the country in 15 years is now in evidence. A great area of high pressure air has been mobilizing in the Atlantic off Bermuda for the last month and now has let go the full power of its offensive from the seaboard to the Rocky Mountains.

For weeks it has stood like a solid wall against heated currents trying vainly to move out from the interior over the ocean, and now as it swirls rapidly along it is gathering heat and moisture from the tropics and sweeping them northward over the continent into the vacuum of so-called "low pressure areas." Although its greatest intensity has not yet struck the Pacific Coast, it is expected to do so within the next few days.

No relief is promised from the phenomenon which in the East has caused sweltering city dwellers to light fires in their homes to dry out the humidity or which in the Mississippi Valley is threatening to destroy millions of dollars' worth of food crops. Chief Forecaster Frankenfield says that the heat wave only had begun. It is certain to continue through the week and probably longer. None of the conditions essential to a break up are yet evident. The relief which often comes from the northwest is nowhere in sight.

New York, July 28—A combination of heat and excessive humidity enveloped New York yesterday in the atmosphere of a Turkish bath. Only once, in July, 1896, has the humidity been higher than the record reached yesterday—88.

The thermometer and the hydrometer moved upward together, the former registering 85. The humidity record was the culmination of a fortnight of similar weather that has caused New Yorkers more than the usual discomfort that accompanies July heat.

Aurora, Ill., July 28—Farm animals are falling so frequently beneath the hot sun which has literally scorched the north central part of the State for the last two and one-half weeks that stockmen face great losses. Milch cows are in particular succumbing. It was 100 degrees above at 1 o'clock yesterday and the thermometer was going up a degree an hour. Fifteen out of the last 18 days have seen temperatures of 90 or above and not a drop of rain has fallen since July 13, when a sprinkle spotted the countryside.

Lincoln, Neb., July 28—Unless rain falls in Nebraska within a week the corn crop will suffer millions of dollars damage, according to W. R. Mellor, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, who is making a survey of the situation.

Chicago, July 28—Twenty-six persons died during the night as a result of the terrific heat wave which has been sweeping prairie States the last two weeks, reports to the coroner's office showed today.

This makes the total numbor of dead in Chicago as the result of the heat forty-four within the last twenty-four hours.

HEAVY RAINS AND TYPHOID

State Board of Health Anticipates Increase in Number of Cases Unless Precautions are Quickly Taken

Richmond, Va., July 28, 1916 (Special)—The rains which have been deluging Virginia in the last few weeks may result in a sharp increase in the number of cases of typhoid fever, according to the State Board of Health, unless prompt precautions are taken by all whose water-supply is in danger of possible pollution by overflow or otherwise.

The late spring, health officers say, gave Virginia the prospect of a favorable typhoid year, but these prospects are fast being upset by continued washing rains and the morbidity of the year may exceed that of 1915 unless indusidual house-holders and farmers protect themselves.

The rains, it appears, are peculiarly favorable to the spread of typhoid, in that they wash the filth into streams, whence it may find its way into water-supplies of different communities. On farms, also, where reliance is placed on springs, heavy rains someitme choke up the ditches or dam the spring branches and result in overflow or backwater that may be dangerous. The board is strongly urging every farmer to watch his spring and, if he finds the water muddy after rains, to either use another spring or to render the supply safe by proper ditching above and below the spring. Full directions for doing this have been issued in printed form by the board and may be had free upon request.

Of serious outbreaks of typhoid, the board reports few during the last month, and none that could be classed as genuine epidemics. All reported outbreaks have been investigated by officers of the board and have been traced to different causes in the various localities affected. In some instances, the origin of the disease was relatively obscure and responsibility was placed on what seemed to be minor and overlooked factors in sanitary protection.

BIBLE SANTIFICATION.

Interesting Theme Discoursed Upon By Evangelist Last Night

"Bible Sanctification" formed the basis of Evangelist Gibson's sermon at the gospel tent on north Washington street last night. The speaker explained the signification of the word sanctify as used by the Bible writers. "To sanctify is for the Lord to set apart a certain thing for holy use — to hallow it," said the preacher. Continuing he said: "We are not the ones to say we are perfect. For the Lord says in John, i., 8, If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us."

The subject tonight will be "Elijah the Prophet."

OSCEOLA TRIBE MEETS

The next regular meeting of the tribe will be held August 2 at eight p. m., and the lodge requests all members to be present.

Germans Bring Up More Guns and Indicate They Are Preparing For Counter Attacks

London, July 28—British troops have driven the Brandenburgers out of Delville Wood, according to General Haig's report to the war office today.

The British commander-in-chief said the Fifth Brandenburgers were the German troops thus ejected from the little forested area northwest of Longueval, which has been the scene of hand-to-hand fighting for the past week.

"One hundred and sixty-three prisoners were captured in Delville Wood, the whole of which is now ours," General Haig reported. "The German counter-attacks were beaten off with heavy loss to the enemy."

"Further progress" at Longeuval was announced by the British commander-in-chief, who also related gains near Pozieres.

London, July 28—Since the completion of the capture of Pozieres the news of the British front in France is mainly of artillery actions and testing encounters at various points on the German line. The comparative lull and hot, hazy weather, it is assumed, have given the Germans an opportunity to bring up further troops and guns with a view to renewed attempts to recapture Pozieres, where however, according to unofficial reports, the British troops have further consolidated their positions.

Last night's official report shows that there has been hard fighting all yesterday with some fluctautions of fortune, but that in the end the British improved their positions northeast at Pozieres and in the vicinity of Longueval and Delville wood.

Throughout last night British troops continued to press the Germans with hand to hand encounters at various points on the Somme front in France says the official British statement issued today.

Paris, July 28—The capture of the village of Pozieres from the Germans, military officers say, means that the British are in complete possession of the German second line in the Somme region.

The fight for Pozieres lasted 11 days—from July 14 to July 25. The place was defended by 200 machine guns, of which all except 30 were destroyed or put out of action by the British artillery.

A species of fort in the centre of the village was defended by a company of Bavarian infantry. These troops resisted for 12 hours and at the end of that time only four men were found alive. In a dugout close by a heap of 60 bodies remained unburied.

The last defenders of the village were the men of a Bavarian battalion who were decimated as they crossed the 300 yards between the village and a cemetery where they made their last but unsuccessful stand.

British hand grenade attacks against the German lines to the west of the town of Pozieres in the Somme region were repulsed Wednesday according to the announcement made by German army headquarters at Berlin.

BUGGY RUNS OVER BOY.

Jack Doniphan, the 8-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Doniphan, of the Fairfax Apartments was run down shortly before nine o'clock last night in front of the Richmond Theatre on King street by a buggy driven by Leslie Taylor, of Fairfax county. The lad was picked up by Dr. E. A. Gorman who was passing at the time in an automobile, who took him to the Alexaxndria Hospital, where he treated the boy for minor lacerations. His injuries were not serious.

CLEARS OFFICER'S NAME

Official Report Holds That Lieut.-Col Butler Was Innocent of Wrongdoing.

San Antonio, Texas, July 28—The official report on the killing of Lieut.-Col. M. C. Butler at Alpine, Texas, last week by Harry Spannell completely clears the name of the dead officer.

The report, transmitted to General Funston Wednesday by Col. J. A. Gaston, district commander, with headquarters at Marfa, says that Colonel Butler was aware that Spannell was jealous of his wife and took care never to be with her except when others were present.

The immediate incident that led to the killing of the army officer and Mrs. Spannell is described in the report. Colonel Gaston, who hurried to Alpine immediately following word of the shooting, says that Colonel and Mrs. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Spannell had gone to the home of a friend who was ill, and on their return to the hotel, where all lived, it was suggested that everyone, as a precaution, should wash their hands.

Colonel Gaston says that shortly after this Spannell went to the Butlers' room, and finding apparently, only Colonel Butler and Mrs. Spannell there, began to upbraid his wife At this point, however, Mrs. Butler came out of the bathroom and pointed out to him that she was one of the party.

Soon after Spannell took Colonel and Mrs. Spannell on the ride that ended in their being killed.

FAVORABLE REPORT OF BILL

Representative Carlin's Measure Avers to Aiding Foreign Governments

The Carlin bill to limit the activities of certain officers of the government has been ordered reported from the House committee on judiciary. The bill is aimed at Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing, drafted and fostered by an organization of plate printers, and based on the undisputed fact that employes of the bureau were allowed to go to Cuba to aid the government of that country to establish an engraving plant.

The Carlin bill declares that it shall be unlawful for any officer or employe of the government to give his time or knowledge to any foreign government or corporation "for the purpose of assisting any such government—in the establishment of, or carrying on of, any printing or engraving establishment or any other business whatsoever, which is or may be, directly or indirectly, competitive with American industry or which may directly or indirectly, deprive American labor of its employment and means of livelihood."

The bill provides that persons resigning from their government positions to give their time and experience to other governments shall be ineligible to reinstatement to office under this government.

Submarine is Ready, But Sailing Time is a Big Mystery

FATE OF THE BREMEN

Crew of German Undersea Craft Scout Idea That the Sister Ship Has Been Taken

Baltimore, July 28—Watchers aboard the German subsea freighter Deutschland want to see the ships of England go.

They fear that a plan is afoot to have vessels in ballast in the harbor follow the Deutschland out to the capes and "accidentally" ram her. This would save the allied patrol a big task and, as one of the Germans put it, the Britisher could say, "Oh, I beg pardon; I will pay you damages."

This fear is believed to be one of the compelling motives behind orders to delay the Deutschland's departure.

The Bremen, however, is a vital factor. Stories that she has been captured, and is now interned at Halifax, Nova Scotia, brought the comment from a Deutschland official today:

"Bah, she is not lost until three or four weeks." And. he added that the Deutschland's sister-ship is too clever to fall into the meshes of the allied patrol.

All was peaceful along the Patapsco early today. A persistent screen of mystery still haunted the situation. There had been a long party aboard the Neckar at the Deutschland pier; some of the crew had individual parties ashore, rolling in during the early hours.

But no one connected with the subsea venture would reveal when the Deutschland's stay ends. The forty-eight hours since the Deutschland cleared, expired this afternoon, but under local port rules it was found that the vessel need not re-clear, as supposed, except in case she alters her cargo. The vessel is still being trimmed as there is a certain unevenness that might be annoying later.

A fear of unequal trimming of the ship has held up the sailing of the Deutschland.

This is believed to have caused the change of the sailing time. It was reliably reported that the submersible was scheduled to leave "some time after midnight" Wednesday.

VILLA REPORTED TRAPED..

Capture By Ten Tousand Pursuers Reported Immiment in

Mexico City, July 28. — Pancho Villa is being driven into a trap. Ten thousand Carranzista troops are driving him, and his capture is imminent, according to officials here. The announcement was made in reply to rumors from the United States border that the bandit chief is moving toward Torreon.

"Such a story is ridiculous," it was stated today by high officials. "Villa cannot move south."

Reply to First Chief Carranbas not suggesting a joint commission for settlement of the border difficulties is exxpected hourly from the United States. "Settlement of certain matters," according to the view of officials, is probably delaying it.

Loss estimated at $1,000,000 was caused last night in New York, by a fire which destroyed the large three-story frame warehouse of the Uneeda Storage and Van Company, The intense heat and smoke drove hundreds of families from nearby apartment houses. The blaze was one of the most spectacular in many months.

Death of U. S. Officer Brings to Mind Issues Following War Between the States

Army circles in New York have heard of the death at Hague, Lake George, N. Y., of Brig-Gen J. G. C. Lee, U. S. A. (retired). He was 80 years old. The funeral will be held in Washington next Sunday. Interment will be in Arlington.

During our civil war and for several years subsequent there to Gen. Lee was an officer in the quartermaster's department in Alexandria. The depot of supplies at that time was in what was known as the old "Brown Shed," on the river front between Cameron and Queen streets, erected in 1859 when the New York and Virginia Steamship Company began to operate ships between Washington, Georgetown, Alexandria and New York.

These were the days of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the war being over, hundreds of negroes were herded in Alexandria, dependent for subsistence upon the government or the city. Alexandria was willing to take care of the negroes native and to the manner born, but darkies who had been manumitted and who had refuged to this city failed to appeal to our people. The state was out of the union at the time, and the military still had charge here, that is to a certain extent. An issue soon arose between Captain Paul R. Hambrick, of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the late Hugh Latham, who had a short time before been elected Mayor. Hambrick, and incidentally, Lee, who was a colonel at the time, took issue with Mayor Latham concerning the alleged lack of attention to the "contrabands," as the freed negroes were called. Long cards from these officials at short intervals filled most of the local department of the Gazette. The embroglio was confined almost entirely to a war of words, the mayor being as firm as Gibraltar in the position he had taken.

Colonel Lee resided in this city some time after the close of the war, but after 1870, when the state had re-entered the union, the great bulk of northern people who were here during the four years' hostilities moved away, and Colonel Lee was sent to new fields.

DEATH OF O. W. CHILTON.

Mother of Deceased Was Miss Massie of Alexandria.

Orrick M. Chilton, 50 years old, for 20 years central passenger agent in this city of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company, was found dead in his room on the Seventh floor of the Rennert Hotel, Baltimore with a bullet wound in his right temple shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning. A pistol was clutched in his right hand. He had evidently committed suicide. Ill health and the fear of having to undergo an operation for an ailment from which he had suffered for some time is attributed as the cause for the act. Born in Warrenton, Va., Mr. Chilton was the son of the late Dr. A. Chilton. His mother before marriage was Miss Catherine Massie, of Alexandria, Va., who is also dead.

LATE MISS JANNEY.

Funeral services for the late Miss Elizabeth Marks Janney, who died early yesterday morning at the Alexandria Hospital, will be conducted this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Judge Barley of the Corporation Court Will Soon Rule on Caton Appeal

A decision is expected within the next week in the case of J. Reece Caton, who was fined in police court several weeks ago for violating the Sunday law and who appealed his case, through his counsel, Attorney Leo P. Harlow, to the corporation court.

When the case came up in that court before Judge Louis C. Barley about two weeks ago, the latter took the case under consideration after it had been argued by Mr. Caton's counsel and the counsel for the State, Commonwealth's Attorney Samuel C. Brent. Since that time Judge Barley has had the appeal under advisement, and it is expected that he will render a decision at an early date now.

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON

Early last night a small boy, while sporting with other children of his own age, was knocked down by a carriage in charge of a young man from Fairfax county, and before the vehicle could be stopped one of the hind wheels ran over the little one. The injured boy was placed in an automobile and hurried to the Alexandria Hospital, where it was ascertained that the child's injuries were not serious. From an investigation subsequently made in the Police Court, it is evident the accident was unavoidable, the child having run in front of the oncoming carriage, having been unable to see it from the fact that an automobile was standing in front of the vehicle.

Some excitement was caused by the accident, it being feared that the child's injuries would prove serious, and great relief was experienced by all who witnessed the mishap when it was learned that he had escaped with cuts and bruises.

The above should prove a warning to parents who turn their children loose on King street, especially at night. They generally gather in front of moving picture places, or in other localities where the greater number of people are to be found, and, thoughtlessly, imagine everybody and everything will give them the right of way. Often children, who really should be in the care of nurses, are seen on King street, some amusing themselves on tricycles, sometimes with two boys upon one, moving leisurely along on electric car tracks or in the way of automobiles. People sitting in front of their places of business are often rendered uncomfortable when watching these dangerous procedures. Early last night people near the intersection of King and Fairfax streets were rendered nervous when they saw the risks taken by the little ones.

In the larger cities it is a common occurrence to read of little children having their lives crushed out by cars or vehicles. Let us be thankful that so few accidents of this nature have occurred in Alexandria, and do everything possible in the way of precaution. These suggestions are especially directed to parents, who too often allow their young and consequently irresponsible offspring to take care of themselves.

INVASION OF CHESAPEAKE.

As is observed by a contemporary, instead of the Germans coming with their feared forces—the same that are cooped up at Kiel by the British like so many fresh-water fowl—it is the British, the dire foes of the nation a hundred years and more ago, who have invaded the Chesapeake and have roused the patriots to their fullest phlegm of indignation.

The British man-o'-warsman entered the Capes without so much as by your leave and after cruising about like a lion looking for a mouse and failing to find the Deutschland tit-bit under its nose, scampered out again to the deep sea. This was an inquisitive and impertinent visitor. The wonder is that even British lack of humor can fail to see the drollness of this method of scouting for the Deutschland. The visit was rankly discourteous, as it was without any of the usual formalities.

While there is no likelihood of Great Britain attempting to treat the United States as she did in 1812, when press gangs infested England and when our ships were stopped on the ocean, searched and American citizens made to serve in the British navy we do not relish the thought that her men-of-war are doing practically what they did at the beginning of the last century— entering Virginia waters unannounced, without saluting our forts and leaving as suddenly as they entered.

Several years ago while reading a copy of the Alexandria Gazette of 1812 we found a long protest against the practice of English warships entering the capes and anchoring in Hampton Roads with having intercourse whatever with the United States authorities. The Stars and Stripes were treated with contempt, and the foreign commanders seemed to look upon our infant country as still a British possession.

It is hoped the United States navy will let the mother country know that the United States is now a vigorous cub which has rights Great Britain must respect.

WOULD ABOLISH THE SENATE.

The Socialist party national committee yesterday in Chicago began the formation of a national party platform. Among the planks of the tentative platform is the following:

Abolition of the United States Senate the veto power of the President and that of the courts to pronounce legislation unconstitutional or to issue injunctions in certain matters.

George Washington said many things worth remembering. He believed in an upper and a lower house of Congress. Shortly after the United States had secured its independence a representative of the red republican element of Paris, who was visiting in this country, called upon Washington and remained with him until next morning. The enthusiastic visitor took occasion to express his ideas concerning what a Congress should be. He told the great chieftain that the people of this country were about to make a serious mistake in having two houses. There should, he insisted, be but one body, and he manifested th egreatest abhorrence of a Senate.

The foreigner made these observations while taking breakfast with Washington. The latter, after listening to the man's ideas concerning political economy in silence, saw that the Frenchman was blowing his coffee, it being too hot to drink. The father of his country asked him why he did so. The Frenchman replied, "It is too hot as it comes from the cup." Washington looked at him seriously and said, "Your cup of coffee may be likened to the House of Representatives. Measures coming from that body are at times likely to be impractical, or too hot; hence the need of a Senate to cool them down before they are offered for public consumption."

VIRGINIA NEWS

It is said in Richmond that Senator H. H. Downing, of Front Royal will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination from the Seventh Congressional District for the seat made vacant by the retirement of Representative James Hay.

Following heavy rains, Beaver Creek, ordinarily a small stream, overflowed its banks and was running down part of the business section of Bristol last night. Water was two feet deep in the Virginia postoffice, and guests at the Hotel Bristol were marooned.

Caught on a large fish trap in the James river at a point about 40 feet from the Southside shore, Richmond, the body of Uriah (Hugh) Turner, a Southside riverman, was discovered yesterday morning. Turner had been missing for several days and the decomposed body confirmed the belief that he had ended his life several nights ago.

Z. E. Keister, the real estate man who fired a bullet into his brain a week ago soon after the discovery of the dead body of his wife in the fire-scarred ruins of their home in Norfolk, died yesterday. He never regained consciousness. A coroner's jury yesterday found that Mrs. Keister met death at the hands of her husband.

R. W. Insco, 21 years old, turned from the telephone in his home in Richmond Wednesday night after speaking a few words to Miss Judith Walker, and almost immediately fired a bullet into his left side. He had left the telephone receiver dangling from its hook, in order that the girl at the other end of the wire might hear the shot, and had advanced to the front door before shooting himself. He will recover. Insco had had a quarrel with Miss Walker.

Capt. Hutchinson, of the machine-gun company of the First Virginia Regiment, is on guard on the International Bridge at Brownsville, Tex., with a detail of six men and four machine guns borrowed from the Fourth Infantry, owing to the fact that the equipment for the new organization has been delayed. It is expected to arrive within a week. The merrymaking goes on at night as usual, the most popular song being "When I Get Back to Old Virginia."

Headed by Mrs. William Cummings Story, president-general, a large delegation of members of the Daughters of the American Revolution Wednesday called on President Wilson, to obtain his aid and influence for the passage of a bill now pending in Congress for the purchase of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, in Virginia. The President told the delegation he was in favor of the $500,000 called for in the bill to purchase the property, and would give his influence and aid in having the bill passed.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice's official denial that a British cruiser recently had visited Chesapeake Bay, as reported by officers of the United States warship Louisiana, was received in silence by them. From other sources, however, it was learned that there was no disposition on the part of any of the men on the Louisiana who originally averred they saw a ship which signaled that it was an "English cruiser," to change their stories. The most perplexing problem now confronting government officials who are investigating the incident, is to establish the identity of the mysterious ship if she was not an English cruiser as officially denied.

"IT TOOK A REAL CONSTIPATION REMEDY TO CURE ME!"

Mrs. Magarity also Relieved of Heartburn, Nervousness and Gastritis by One Bottle of Dreco

"Don't try to tell me one single thing about Gastritis, heartburn and constipation, because I've had' em," said Mrs. Magarity, 1011 N. Carolina Street, Baltimore, Md.,

"I had gastritis till I was almost afraid to look at a dinner, and no matter how hungry I was, I always suffered so after eating that it was hardly worth it. I couldn't sleep, either, and was as nervous as a witch, with headaches almost all the time and a constant trouble from constipation. In fact, that was one of my worst troubles, and the thing I'm most glad to be rid of.

"I only needed the first bottle to prove to me that what I'd been looking for I'd found! and I can tell you I'm mighty glad I did, too! You know a person gets mighty tired going without good things to eat just because she knows she's going to pay up for it with pain. And when you can't sleep—that caps the climax. Nothing like that, now, I can assure you. I've made an improvement I'm proud of, and I'm only too glad to give all the credit to Dreco, for it's proven a wonderful remedy in my case, and I'm only too glad to state it for the benefit of others who may be suffering in the same way.

"My appetite's as good as when I was a young girl; I sleep fine all night through, I don't have heartburn half as much as I did, and the constipation is almost entirely corrected, and I feel sure that with one more bottle of Dreco I'll be in as perfect shape physically as it is possible for me to be.

"You can refer anybody at all to me, for what I'm stating here are facts, and I'm only too pleased to give the credit where it belongs, to Dreco, for it's a wonder remedy, in my opinion, and the only thing I ever found that was put into a bottle that would actually relieve all these bad conditions."

MAJOR LEAGUE BALL

American League

New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox are surely having a battle royal for the lead in the American League, one-half game now being all that separates the latter from the Yanks, and Cleveland and Chicago having now been shoved several games in the rear.

Washington has suffered a severe-set-back at the hands of the Tigers in Detroit, having dropped three games in a row to them, mainly through failure of pitchers to come through and the miserable support that is being given the moundsmen when they do pitch steady ball. Certain it is that the Nationals have been hitting in fair form. The Tigers are only one point behind the Nationals, and should they capture today's fray from the Washington lads the latter will occupy sixth place.

It is likely now that the Nationals will take a brace and defeat the Tigers today, and put forth their best efforts to make the first division once more, only a few games separating them from the White Sox and Cleveland, who are tied for third place.

Scores of yesterday follow:
Detroit, 7; Washington, 4.
Boston, 7; Cleveland, 6.
New York, 8; Chicago 6.
St. Louis, 3; Athletics, 2.

Schedules for today:
Washington at Detroit.
Boston at Cleveland.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.

National League.

The pennant race in the National League is being fought out between all of the eight teams, as practically every club in the senior circuit is in a position where one victory or one defeat will alter their standing radically. Cincinnati Reds, the tail-enders, are hardly a dozen full games behind Brooklyn Dodgers, who are setting the pace in this league.

The real pennant contenders, however, at the present writing, are the Dodgers, the Braves, and the Phillies, who are sticking to each other like grim death. The five remaining teams are bunched very closely too, however, and but a small margain of games serves as the dividing line between the Phillies, who occupy third place, and the Cubs, who are settled at the bottom of the first division.

Daily interest is incited in the results of games in this league.

It is impossible to make any sort of prediction as to who will likely win the pennant or even as to which teams will be out in front at the close of the season.

Yesterday's scores:
Phillies, 5; Pittsburgh, 4.
New York, 4; Cincinnati, 3.
Brooklyn, 4; St. Louis, 2.
Boston, 2; Chicago, 2.
11 Innings.

Today's schedules:
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at New York.
St. Louis at Brooklyn.
Chicago at Boston.

HAVE NEW VICEROY

London, uly 28—Parliamentary correspondent of the Daily News says it is the general expectation to political circles that the government will appoint another chief secretary for Ireland, and, by implication, another viceroy, thus ending the present government of Ireland, which is practically in the hands of a military commission.

He understands that Premier Asquith, after his visit to Dublin, wished to appoint Earl Kitchener as viceroy. Objetions were raisde in several quarters and the proposal was abandoned. t

"Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Wonders for Me '
"I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for a number of years, and although I have used a great number of remedies recommended for this complaint, Chamberlain's Tablets is the first medicine that has given me positive and lasting relief,' writes Mrs. Anna Kadin, Spencerport, N. Y., "Chamberlain's Tablets have done wonders for me and I value them very highly." Obtainable everywhere.

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which
